

Curriculum Vitae

Dr Lim Chee Han

Lecturer

UC

Tel : +65 6248 0139

Education Qualifications

2009	PhD (Anthropology), The Australian National University (ANU)
2005	M.Soc.Sci (Sociology), National University of Singapore
2001	B.Soc.Sci (Sociology, 1st class honors), National University of Singapore
2000	B.A. (Sociology, with Merit), National University of Singapore

Academic and Professional Experience

2010 - 2013	Post-doctoral Research Fellow, Division of Sociology, Nanyang Technological University
2010 - 2010	Green Templeton College Visiting Scholar in Medical Anthropology, University of Oxford
2008 - 2008	Research Assistant, Contemporary China Centre, The Australian National University
2005 - 2009	Part-time Lecturer, Division of Sociology, Nanyang Technological University
2007 - 2007	Teaching Assistant, University of Canberra
2003 - 2003	Teaching Assistant, National University of Singapore
2003 - 2003	Research Assistant, National University of Singapore
2003 - 2003	Research Assistant, The Family Unit, Ministry of Community, Youth and Sports
2002 - 2002	Research Assistant, National University of Singapore

Membership and Professional Activities

2011	Member, Association of Asian Studies
2002	Member, Taoist Mission (Singapore)

Consultation and Executive Experience

- Lawton and Yeo Pte. Ltd. – Research Consultant
- Central Provident Fund – Seminar on ‘Bureacracy and Weber’
- Hwa Chong Institute – Seminar on ‘Social Theory and the Foxconn Scandal’
- Taoist Mission (Singapore) – Member and Interpreter

Research Interests

- Cultural studies of the body, medicine, religion, ethics and politics.

Selected Publications

Chee-Han Lim, 2014, “Migration as a Spiritual Pathway: Narratives of Chinese Falungong Practitioners in Singapore” in Religion and Mobility in a Globalizing Asia: New Ethnographic Explorations. Eds. Sin Wen Lau & Nanlai Cao. Routledge.

Chee-Han Lim, 2013. “Migration as a Spiritual Pathway: Narratives of Chinese Falungong Practitioners in Singapore”. The Asia Pacific Journal of Anthropology. Volume 14, Issue 1. pp. 57-70.

Lim Chee Han, 2012. “Reframing the Singaporean Political Discourse”. Feature article in Berita, newsletter of the Malaysia/Singapore/Brunei Studies Group of the Association for Asian Studies. pp. 16-19.

Volker Schmidt and Lim Chee Han, 2004. “Organ Transplantation in Singapore: History, Problems, and Policies” Social Science & Medicine, Volume 59, Issue 10, pp. 2173-2182

Updated 17 September 2013